

March – May 2010

e-OMNISCI keeps you informed of the happenings from the Faculty of Science four times a year ... READ MORE>

In this issue ...

Faculty & Staff – Teaching Workshop

Every year, to keep our staff abreast with the latest trends in teaching, they attend a teaching workshop where the best teachers among them speak of their experiences ... READ MORE>

Project Angel XII – Yunnan, China

In May and Jun, 20 Science students went on Science Club's Project Angel expedition to rural Dali in Yunnan, China. This is Project Angel's 12th expedition. Our students learned to build toilets and teach environmental awareness to the locals ... READ MORE>

Exploring Nature with the Raffles Museum

Over the last few months, the Raffles Museum of Biodiversity Research launched a most successful fund raising campaign. Find out what the staff at the Raffles Museum do ... READ MORE>

Alive10!

Our students give back to society through the Science Volunteer Corps. Find out how they did it one early July morning ... READ MORE>

NUS Open House 10

Every year in March, NUS plays host to almost 20,000 prospective students. They come to find out what it takes to be an NUS student ... READ MORE>

... Download the PDF now to read more!